DAILY PRAYERS

Sunday: The Son is the radiance of God's glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty in heaven (Hebrews 1:3).

Monday:

We pray today for the children of the land who are in their Easter holidays from schooling. Thank you Father that they are in your care, and may they be ready to continue learning when it is time to return.

Tuesday:

We pray today for the staff and doctors in hospitals, particularly at those stations who have to cope with the consequences of usual holiday excesses. May the Lord bless them in all that they do.

Wednesday:

We thank the Lord today for the Springtime sun, the longer daylight hours available and the renewed energy it brings to many people after the cold and wet winter.

Thursday:

We pray today for the governments of the world trying to tackle current issues like the cost of living, international conflicts and resulting problems. Have mercy on us all, Father God.

Friday:

Shout for joy and sing your praises to the King, lift your voice high, let you Hallelujahs ring! Com before His throne to worship and adore, enter joyfully now into the presence of the Lord.

Saturday:

As another week draws to a close, we remember again your love and sacrifice celebrated at Easter. Help us ever to be reminded of that and the peace, joy and hope that a relationship with you brings.
