PRAYERS FOR OUR CHURCH FAMILY this week we remember:

Chris Howie, Tania Hunt, Joan Jenkin, and Vic & Maureen Joy

DAILY PRAYERS

Sunday: You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit-that will last-and that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. This is my command: Love each other.

Monday: On this day we remember those fallen for our country. Let us also pray for those across the world who are grieving at this time for loved ones lost in the course of their military duty.

Tuesday: Let us pray today for the people in Spain, still dealing with the effects of the terrible floods recently. That help may be provided for those that need it, practically and emotionally.

Wednesday: O God our Help in ages past, our Hope for years to come; be Thou our Guard while life shall last, and our eternal Home!

Thursday: On the king's birthday, let us remember our Commonwealth brothers and sisters, especially those in the countries where the quality of life has not yet reached ours at home.

Friday: Following the re-election of Donald Trump, we pray for the people and government – of the US and across the world – that this result will affect. That God's plan be fulfilled in the coming years.

Saturday: We pray thee, Lord, arise, and come in thy great might; revive our longing eyes, which languish for thy sight.

CHURCH NOTICES

Thank you to all those who attended the Defib and CPR training on Friday 25th. There are some people who were unable to attend and the organiser is happy to run another session but prefers to have a minimum of 12. I will put a list on the table at the back of the church, please add your name if interested, or details of a group who you think might like to join us. Val G

Chloe is going to Kenya in July 2025 as part of a charity project to build a school. She will be building and teaching whilst there. In order to get there, she needs to raise just over £1800. To start her fundraising, she will be selling Christmas cards. Please see Chloe to order some or for more information.

The updated Church Handbooks/Directories for 2024/25 are now available by the A/V Desk for collection in both large and small versions. Please help yourselves, and safely destroy your old copies. There is no charge!

If you have one that is No. 76 or earlier, then it is out of date and ideally should be changed. Did you know the latest directory can always be viewed on our website which is regularly updated.

You can log in or register to see members' pages at the top right hand corner of the screen. Any problems please speak to Graham.

After the success of reading together in August, the Elders have asked me to arrange another book to read together for Advent. I have chosen "The Radiant Dawn" by Tom Parsons as it follows much of the Biblical text that we will be looking at in December. As advent is a busy time for us all, we will not have bible study groups, but instead I will place a few conversation cards on the tables for you to chat about over your Sunday morning coffee. If you would like a book, please sign up on the sheet at the back of church. The books will cost a maximum of £5, but the more I buy, the cheaper they get, so I will give a definitive price when I know how many I'm buying. As before, please don't let cost put you off, we can subsidize where necessary. An example book is available to view from the vision desk. PLEASE NOTE THAT THIS IS THE LAST SUNDAY TO SIGN UP Mary
